Final Ranking Local significance Final Recommendation

Statement of significance The avenue of mature English Elm trees along McMillan Street and Desailly Street, Sale is of local aesthetic and historic significance to Wellington Shire. The avenue provides a rare example of street plantings of the early Edwardian era, and aesthetically, is an important contribution to the streetscapes . Historically, it is significant as a reminder of the redevelopment of this area caused by construction of the Sale Canal. (RNE criteria A.4, B.2, E.1)
