History It is thought that this oak may have originally been planted by the Treloar family who constructed the adjacent house at 156 Macalister Street in 1885 and planted the similar oak that still survives in the front garden of that property (refer to separate citation in this study for further historical information).

Final Recommendation

Statement of significance The mature oak at 158 Macalister Street, Sale is of local historic and aesthetic significance to Sale city. Historically, it is important for its associations with the locally prominent Treloar family and provides evidence of the extensive garden associated with the family house, which still survives on the adjoining property at no. 156. Aesthetically, it is one of a number of mature exotic trees that make an important contribution to the historic character of the Victoria Park precinct.
