History It is believed that this tree is the sole surviving remnant of the Honour Avenue planted c.1919 along the Maffra-Sale Road to commemorate those who served in World War One. The rest of the avenue was removed in the late twentieth century. Some of the trees were replaced with Canary Island Pines, which have been planted on the south west side of the road adjacent to the Sale Showgrounds.

Final Ranking Local significance Final Recommendation Amendment C26

Statement of significance The pine tree, planted c.1920, situated at the north-west corner of Maffra-Sale Road and Princes Highway, Sale is of local historic and social significance to Wellington Shire. Historically, it is significant as the only surviving remnant of the Honour Avenue planted along the Maffra-Sale Road to commemorate those who served in World War 1. Socially, it illustrates the impact of World War 1 upon rural communities and is an expression of the grief and pride of the community. (RNE criteria A.4, D.2 & G.1)
